2. Business

2.a Discuss Draft Gym Usage Document, COVID Waiver, and Gym Rental Fee

Draft documents were reviewed and edited by committee members for use by staff to move forward with the policy outlined for rental.

Elements of the rental were defined as immediate items to address, supply items needed, and general infrastructure items to address. Immediate needs include insurance confirmation, items needed for general supplies, keys/locks, and emergency contacts were identified. Roessler will continue to work on temperature control. Additional items to expand community availability were discussed. The small room adjacent to the north entry doors was identified as the storage room for items.

There will be a clean up day on January 26, 2021 for board and staff members to get together to clean the facility.

The next meeting of the Streets, Sidewalks, and Parks Committee will be on February 2, 2020 to review the procedure, how the first two rentals went, and make a final recommendation to the board of trustees.
